

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

The second collection today is for the school.

There will be burritos for sale after both Masses today provided by the Holy Name men.

The Altar and Rosary meeting will be today after the 9 am Mass. All ladies of the parish are invited to attend!

The Holy Name meeting will be postponed until next Sunday.

The Priests' day of recollection will be on Monday. Please call the priory if there is a Sacramental emergency.

Catholic Doctrine Class continues on Tuesday at 7 pm. It will be livestreamed for those unable to attend.

The Monthly Mass for Deceased friends and benefactors will be on Thursday, October 12 at the 7:15 am Mass.

It is time to start preparing for the Parish All Saints Party on Tuesday, October 31 at 6 pm hosted by A&R. There will be Saints Bingo, hot chocolate, popcorn, and prizes for the best costumes. Please plan on bringing your children dressed up as saints and with a short biography of their saint to present to Fr. McBride and the judges.

“Poor Souls Bags” candy donations are being collected for the parish's All Saints Party. There is a bin in the vestibule, where you can drop off the candy. Also, remember there is a sheet at the vestibule to write down the names of your faithful departed, to be included in the Poor Souls Bags.

Master Plan Fundraiser: King Soopers grocery cards are available in the bookstore. Skip the line and come to the counter. Each card is $100 (cash or check only). The parish purchases the cards at a 4% discount so as to make a profit.

REFLECTION

So I can be a saint? Evidently, why doubt it? Moreover, it is a duty for you who read this and on whom abundant graces have been bestowed. A duty is not impossible. Think how much Jesus has loved you and do not be ungrateful. Do not imagine that under pretext of humility you can refuse to acknowledge so many favors and through unpardonable cowardice release yourself from the obligation of being a saint. Do not say that that you want to be an apostle only and not a saint; an apostle who does not rise above mediocrity, good because not bad, and nothing more! Such souls are not worthy to be admitted amongst those who fight for God's glory.

The saints had to fight as much as and more than we against that discouragement which comes from within and without, against their own weakness, which cries out, “Enough! Why so many efforts!” At times they slipped and fell; there were moments when they doubted of their duty to become saints and when victory seemed impossible to them. But soon, recovering and increasing their energy by penance and generosity, they rallied their natures with love and died on the summit, hymning the victory of Jesus.

“To will is to be able.” This axiom is always true in the supernatural order, given the fidelity of God and the mercy of His Heart. If I truly wish to be a saint, I can be one; I can even be a great one. But constantly faithful to divine grace, the saints could say with St. Paul, “I can do all things in Him who strengthens me.”
