REFLECTION

“Teach me, my God, to suffer in peace the afflictions which You send me that my soul may emerge from the crucible like gold, both brighter and purer, to find You within me. Trials like these, which at present seem unbearable, will eventually become light, and I shall be anxious to suffer again, if by so doing I can render you greater service. And however numerous may be my troubles and persecutions... they will all work together for my greater gain though I do not myself bear them as they should be borne, but in a way which is most imperfect.” St. Teresa of Jesus, Divine Intimacy, pg. 1028
