

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

The second collection today is for the Christmas Flowers. Thank you for your support!

We will be collecting “cash and coins” during Advent for the Capital Campaign after both Masses in the vestibule today. Thank you for your support!

The Altar and Rosary annual Christmas Craft and Gift Store will be held today after both Masses. There will also be a raffle for many baskets and the grand prize is a beautiful statue of St. Michael. All proceeds will go toward altar needs.

Tomorrow is the Priests’ Day of Recollection. Please call the Priory if there is a sacramental emergency.

Decorating the Church: The men will start decorating the church tomorrow, December 22, at 6 pm. Please come if you would like to help!

The Candlelight Midnight Solemn High Mass will be on Wednesday. The choir will start singing carols at 11:15 pm. There will only be a 9 am low Mass on Christmas day.

Please come to celebrate with us after the Candlelight Midnight Mass. Please bring finger foods or snacks to share.

The blessing of the children will be next Sunday, Feast of the Holy Innocents, after both Masses.

The lower school will be hosting their annual Reader's Auction on January 30, 2026. The Auction was set up to encourage students to read good books. To make our auction even better, we are looking for either monetary or donated items. If you are interested in donating, please drop off items at the lower school or contact Mrs. Nancy Gallegos (text at 303-915-8841). Thank you.

REFLECTION

“The hut in Bethlehem is a school, from which the divine Redeemer begins his teaching, not with words, but with works, teaching that the only means of rehabilitation is sacrifice in poverty and pain. — The pompous theories, the sensational rallies, the discussion of burning questions are of no use. To restore everything in Christ, without science taking care of it, without wealth lending help, and without politics intervening, this lesson is enough; and society, walking along this path, would be happy in universal contentment and tranquility. The hut in Bethlehem is a school, where if we see a pagan Caesar become an unconscious instrument of divine Providence and contribute admirably to the foundation of the Church, no one can doubt that God does not help her to defend and preserve it. — Certainly the evils that afflict it at the present are many and very serious, its enemies (masked or obvious) numerous and powerful; the means they have to do harm are formidable; but we must not lose heart, because in the divine promises we have the certainty that God will always achieve the predetermined end, using the same evil, as Augustine says, produced by our free will at the triumph of good.”

St. Pius X To the members of the Roman Curia on the occasion of the exchange of Christmas wishes (December 23, 1903)
