

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

We continue to take commitments for our Grow Where You Are Planted capital campaign. We hope that every household will participate and make a pledge. If you've already made your commitment, we thank you.

If you have not yet made a pledge, there are commitment cards in the pews. Please complete your pledge card and put it in the collection basket or the parish mailbox.

If you are not ready to make a pledge, please take a commitment card/envelope home with you, pray about it, and remember to bring it with you next weekend. We would like every member or household in the parish to be part of this campaign. Thank you.

The second collection today is for the building maintenance fund. These funds are used for the maintenance and upkeep of the church, school and priory.

The Usher and Rosary schedule is in the vestibule for those serving.

Catholic Doctrine Class is this Tuesday at 7 pm in the basement. Fr. McBride will be speaking on “Fostering Vocations in the Family.” It will be livestreamed for those unable to attend in person.

Saturday is First Saturday. There will be a Sung Mass at 8 am.

Palms for Ashes: Please bring in your palms by next Sunday so that they can be burned into ashes for Ash Wednesday on March 5. There will be a drop box in the vestibule.

Master Plan Fundraiser: King Soopers grocery cards are available in the bookstore. Skip the line and come to the counter. Each card is $100 (cash or check only). The parish purchases the cards at a 4% discount so as to make a profit. See the website for information on additional fundraising when ordering from Amazon.

REFLECTION

Seated on the side of a boat, our Lord preached on the shore of the Lake of Galilee, and the seed which He scattered fell into hearts more or less favorably disposed to receive it. St. Matthew (XIII, 18) and St. Mark (IV, 13) tell us that, so to speak, three of the resulting crops failed in different ways according as the good seed fell on ground which was rocky (hearts hardened by pride), barren (dried up by self-interest), or full of thorns (where sins of sensuality flourish); while three produced excellent results, the word of God in the good ground bringing forth fruit thirty, sixty and a hundred-fold. Furthermore, the Church reminds us of the name of this Sunday, Sexagesima, for among the names which she uses, she lingers over this one: “Some seed fell upon good ground, and brought forth fruit, some a hundred-fold, some sixty-fold, sexagesimum.”

Here is a plan for us to follow. In our spiritual life, let us at least produce sixty-fold, that is, receiving the word of God in a good and perfect heart, let us cause it to bear fruit by our patience so that He, who spent His life scattering His holy teaching among souls, sparso verbi semine (Pange Lingua) and who carries on the same work by his apostles and His Church, may bestow upon us the reward promised to those who persevere in the generous practice of their faith.

It was through the Word that God made the world in the beginning (last Gospel), and it is by the preaching of His Gospel that our Lord came to bring men to a new birth. “Being born again,” says St. Peter, “not of corruptible seed, but incorruptible, by the word of God who liveth and reigneth forever” (1 Peter I, 23).
