

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

The second collection today is for the school. Thank you for your generosity.

The Altar and Rosary Society will meet after the 9 am Mass. All women of the parish are invited to attend.

The monthly Mass for deceased friends and benefactors will be tomorrow at the 11:25 am Mass.

There will be no school on Friday as there will be parent-teacher conferences.

Fr. Du Chalard and three Consoling Sisters will be visiting St. Isidore's next Sunday. The Sisters will be giving a talk after the 9 am Mass about their plans to establish a novitiate here at St. Isidore's. We will be having a potluck to welcome the Sisters. Please bring a main dish and dessert for your family with some to share, and come to hear about this important project.

There will be a Prolife Rosary at the state capitol on Sunday January 25 at 3 pm. Please come and join us in praying for an end to abortion.

REFLECTION

“I beg the Blessed Virgin Mary to allow me to enter in spirit the humble home at Nazareth, to contemplate Jesus’ most admirable life there.”

“O Jesus, how I love to contemplate You as a Child, in the poor house at Nazareth, with Mary and Joseph! Your simple, humble life was just like that of any other child of Your age. You, the splendor of the Father, did not wish anything to distinguish You from the children of men; You, uncreated wisdom, wished to learn from Mary and Joseph, Your creatures, the ordinary little details of life. Joseph showed You how to handle his tools and You watched Him attentively, You learned, You obeyed. Mary taught You holy hymns and recounted tales from the Sacred Scriptures; You listened to her like a humble disciple, You who are the one true Teacher, You who are Truth itself. No one, neither Your relatives nor Your fellow townspeople, knew who You really were. Everyone believed You to be the carpenter’s son and paid no more attention to You than they would have paid to an ordinary apprentice.

O most sweet Jesus, grant that I may imitate, at least to some degree, Your infinite humility! You, the Creator, were obedient to Your creatures. Teach me to bow my proud head and willingly obey my superiors. You came down from heaven to earth. Give me the grace to humble myself, to come down, once and for all, from the pedestal of my pride! How can I bear the sight of Your humility and self-effacement, O my God and my Creator, when I, who am nothingness and sin, use the gifts I have received to set myself above others, to prefer myself even to my superiors?”
