

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

“Our parish’s Grow Where You Are Planted campaign continues to build momentum. This week we are reminded to live with “an attitude of gratitude “for life and for all gifts. Our Commitment Weekend is February 9th. This is the highpoint of our campaign. Please put this important date on your calendar and plan on joining us. Please continue to pray the campaign prayer each day, and also pray, “Lord what do You want to do – through me – for my parish? Help me be Your instrument, that Your kingdom come, that Your will be done. “

There will be a Prolife Rosary at the state capitol, on the west steps, today at 4 pm. Please come and join us in praying for the sanctity of life and an end to abortion.

Catholic Doctrine Class is this Tuesday, January 7 at 7 pm in the basement. Fr. Robinson will be speaking on “Catholic moral teaching on IVF.” It will be livestreamed for those unable to attend in person.

The Knights basketball team will be conducting their main fundraiser, selling Superbowl squares, the next 2 Sundays, Jan 26 and Feb 2. Squares will be $10 each and we will have 2 boards.

Master Plan Fundraiser: King Soopers grocery cards are available in the bookstore. Skip the line and come to the counter. Each card is $100 (cash or check only). The parish purchases the cards at a 4% discount so as to make a profit. See the website for information on fundraising when ordering from Amazon.

REFLECTION

“O Jesus, I beg You to transform my soul as You once transformed the water for the bride and bridegroom at Cana.”

“How encouraging it is, O Lord, for me to find Your sweet Mother beside You today! Everything becomes simple and easy near Mary, beneath her maternal eye, under the protection of her powerful intercession. How good You were, O Jesus, to give us Your dear Mother to be the Mother of our spiritual life! I will follow Mary’s precious advice and do everything You tell me, everything You wish me to do. I want to imitate the blind, prompt obedience of the servants at the wedding feast: to obey You as they did, always and in everything, Your instructions, counsels, and precepts – to obey You likewise in the person of my superiors, even when I do not see the reason for their orders and arrangements, even when they expect difficult things of me or something which seems to me absurd. Furthermore, I want to imitate Your Mother’s complete abandonment when, in her great thoughtfulness, she confided to You her wish to help the bride and bridegroom in their difficulty. Your apparent refusal did not trouble her; she did not persist in her request, but she was sure, absolutely sure, that Your infinitely good and tender heart would provide, and provide abundantly. O Lord, with a like confidence and trust, I lay my needs before You today. Do You see them? My soul is like the waterpots at the feast: full of water, the cold, insipid water of my frailty and weakness, which I never seem to overcome completely. I can say with the Psalmist: ‘The waters have come even unto my soul’ (Ps 60,1), and they submerge me and I am as one drowned in incompetence and weakness. O Lord, I believe that, if You will, You can change all this water into the precious wine of Your love, Your grace, and Your life. You are so powerful, so merciful, that my wretchedness, great as it is, does not astonish You, because in comparison with You, who are infinite, it is always very small. Just as in the Mass the few drops of water which are poured into the chalice are changed with the wine into Your Blood, O Lord, take my wretchedness, plunge it into Your heart, make it disappear in You.” Divine Intimacy, pages 138-141
