REFLECTION

"According to Carmelite tradition, this scapular – a small piece of rough wool cloth – was given in a vision by Virgin Mary to the monastic Simon Stock, living in England in the 13th century. On July 16, 1251, he prayed to Mary that his order could be saved from its oppression. She appeared with the scapular in hand, and told him: "Take, beloved son this scapular of thy order as a badge of my confraternity and for thee and all Carmelites a special sign of grace; whoever dies in this garment, will not suffer everlasting fire. It is the sign of salvation, a safeguard in dangers, a pledge of peace and of the covenant." Promises associated with the scapular are: Mary's protection of the Carmelite order and all those who wear the scapular (including laymen of its Third Order); special help at one's hour of death for all who wear the habit (or scapular) in Mary's name; and the so-called "Sabbatine Privilege" which Pope John XXII declared in 1322 meant early release from Purgatory for those who died in Mary's care." <https://olmca.sspcx.ca/en/our-lady-mount-carmel-30921>

"The favor which the Little Flower has already conferred upon us, upon all her devotees, upon all who have made her Novena; she has brought us closer to Mary. See how she has kept her promise of letting fall her roses, roses of greater devotion to Mary, roses of greater knowledge of and greater love of the Blessed Virgin. Many have learned during Novenas what they did not know before—the close connection between the Little Flower and the Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, and having gained this knowledge, have resolved to imitate the Little Flower more closely in her love of Mary and in her devotion to the Brown Scapular of Mary. All this is the Little Flower's work. Every resolution, every Sacrament devoutly received during her Novena, is her work. What a marvelous fulfillment of her promise: 'My work begins after my death; I will spend my heaven doing good upon earth.' The Little Flower is very near to Mary on this Feast; therefore let us ask her for many of her roses—but for this rose especially—greater care never to be without the Scapular and greater devotion to Mary; a devotion constant and ardent enough to lead us one day to Heaven where the Little Flower today is enjoying the loving smile of Heaven's Queen—Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. " <https://www.salvemariaregina.info/SalveMariaRegina/SMR-185/Therese04.htm>
