REFLECTION

“The saints have from the first encouraged a tender devotion to this most Sacred Heart. ‘Longinus,’ says St. Augustine, ‘opened the side of Jesus with His spear; in it I enter, and securely rest.’ ‘O how good,’ exclaims St. Bernard, ‘how lovely to take up my abode in this Heart! In this temple, in this sanctuary, before this ark of the covenant, I will adore and praise the name of the Lord, and say with the prophet: I have found in the heart of Jesus, my king, my brother, my friend.’ ‘Believe me, O blinded men,’ says St. Bonaventura, ‘if you knew how to enter by His sacred wounds into the interior of Jesus, you would there find not only a wonderful sweetness for your soul, but even sweet repose for your body. And if even the body there finds rest, how great, think you, must be the sweetness which the spirit there enjoys, if through these wounds we become united to the Sacred Heart of Jesus!’ And St. Peter Damian says: ‘In this adorable heart we find the weapons with which to defend ourselves against our enemies, a cure for our ills, powerful help against temptations, the sweetest consolation is suffering, and the purest joy in this valley of tears.’”

O Jesus, most worthy of love! I gratefully offer Thee my heart in compensation for my great unfaithfulness, and consecrate myself wholly and forever to Thy service, purposing, with Thy grace, no more to offend Thee. Amen
