

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

We continue to take commitments for our Grow Where You Are Planted Capital Campaign. If you have already made your commitment, we thank you.

If you have not yet made a pledge, there are commitment cards in the pews. Please complete your pledge card and put it in the collection basket or the parish mailbox. If you are not ready to make a pledge, please take a commitment card home with you, pray about it, and bring it with you next weekend. We would like every member or household in the parish to be part of this campaign.

May 25th is our Celebration Sunday, when we will close the campaign and announce the results. Please submit your commitment so your gift can be counted in the final results.

Finally, please plan to join us for our Celebration Sunday Socials.

The Altar and Rosary will have the annual St. Joseph's and St. Patrick's Table today. Please come downstairs to enjoy the baked goods, baskets and other items for this event and support the Altar and Rosary. In addition,

The Holy Name will host a lasagna meal after the 9 am Mass. All donations go to support the church.

Catholic Doctrine Class will be on Tuesday at 7 pm. Fr. Robinson will speak on "Preparing Children for Adulthood." It will be livestreamed for those who cannot attend.

St. Joseph's Feast Day is on Wednesday. There will be a Solemn High Mass at 9 am as there is no school that day.

Easter Duty: Every Catholic is required by the precepts of the Church to receive Holy Communion at least once during the Easter season which lasts from the First Sunday of Lent until Trinity Sunday.

Fridays in Lent: Under current Church law in the United States, all Catholics must abstain from meat on Fridays in Lent, under pain of sin. They must additionally fast on Good Friday. The faithful are also encouraged to fast each day in Lent (USCCB 1966, # 14). <https://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturgical-year-and-calendar/lent/us-bishops-pastoral-statement-on-penance-and-abstinence>.

Stations of the Cross are at 7 pm on Friday.

REFLECTION

“O Jesus, meek and humble of heart, cure me of my pride, make my heart humble, infuse a little of Your profound humility into my soul. Since You know me better than I know myself, how could I, with my proud will, make my heart humble? A poor man cannot give wealth to himself, nor can a proud man give humility to his heart. Only Your infinite goodness can heal pride.

This is the remedy to fix my gaze on You, Incarnate Word, hanging on the Cross. As soon as You see a humble soul looking at You in this way, You are quickly moved to look at it, and the effect of Your divine glance is like that of a ray of sunshine on the earth: it warms it and prepares it to bring forth fruit. This is the way You act, O divine Word, who by the light of Your glance, drain my soul of all its pride, and consume it in Your fire. No one can acquire humility if he does not fix his gaze on You, O Word, on the Cross.”

St. Mary Magdalen dei Pazzi

“ Oh! How firmly must we believe that in the eyes of God humility is an infinitely precious treasure and a jewel most pleasing to Him, since You, His precious treasure and a jewel most pleasing to Him, since You, His divine Son, willed to be so humiliated to make us love this virtue, and to urge us to imitate You in the practice of it, and thus merit the grace to perform its works!” St. John Eudes

Divine Intimacy, pages 317-318.
