REFLECTION

“O Jesus, my hope, I thank Thee for having thus enlightened me, and I beseech Thee never to abandon me to myself, but to direct and guide me till death, according to Thy great and bountiful mercy. But, whosoever would partake of Thy mercy must be a man of prayer. Prayer is the key to the treasury of Thy graces. He who makes use of this key in the proper manner may rest assured that he will obtain all graces from Thee; of this Thy divine promises assure us. The Saints reached a high degree of sanctity and did great things for the salvation of their fellow men, because they were men of prayer. I am firmly resolved from henceforth to be fervent and incessant in prayer. Grant me, O Lord, this great gift of prayer, so that I may daily, nay hourly, advance in Thy divine love and triumph over all the enemies of my soul. O Mary, Mother of Mercy, be my protection at all times. Amen.
