REFLECTION

“On this feast day of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (September 8th), we offer this poem composed in honor of her Immaculate birth.”

“Blessed is the fruit of thy womb!”

“The same could be said of St. Anne, too mother of the Virgin immaculately conceived.

How blessed the day...birth of the new Eve conceived without sin, born without stain, the virgin ewe of the Lamb Who was slain Daughter of David;
Mother of his Son; Queen of our Lord; Immaculate One; The tree of Life, which bore the good Fruit,

She placed on the tree atop Calvary, righting the wrong of the hapless Eve (whom the serpent did deftly deceive);

the humble handmaid, who did meekly believe, although she knew not, how it could be so.

For, how could a virgin ever conceive?

And so, the Virgin does not resist, ever so faithful, She humbly submits “Fiat mihi”

She speaks the Word was made Flesh, Fruit of her womb, the Lamb of God, She would place in the tomb, in humble submission, obedience, She offers her Son, as our recompense

How justly we honor, O Virgin Mary, Thy wondrous and blessed nativity

For, if thou were not born, where would we be? Thou, virgin lamp, from whom His Light did shine; Purity of purity...soul hope of mankind

How blessed the day...birth of the new Eve, Virgin of virgins immaculately conceived

Daughter of David; Mother of his Son; Queen of our Lord; Immaculate One.”
